Import References Downloaded from a Database

Browse to find the file with the references exported from SciFinder (usually saved in the Downloads folder on your computer).

Click on "Select Favorites" to find a filter for SciFinder.
Select Database Filter

Select SciFinder (CAS). In the same way, you can select a filter for a library catalog or another database.

SciFinder will be listed in your favorites. You need to perform this selection only once for your EndNote account.
Import References Downloaded from SciFinder

Once you have selected SciFinder as your favorite, you can choose it from this pull-down menu.

What you need to Download to Use EndNote

Drag the Capture Reference Bookmarklet to the bookmarks toolbar in your browser to export references to EndNote.

In your EndNote account, click on Downloads to install the Capture Reference bookmarklet, the Word plug-in (Cite While You Write), and the Toolbar for Firefox and IE.

Cite While You Write™

Use the EndNote plug-in to insert references, and format citations and bibliographies automatically while you write your papers in Word. This plug-in also allows you to save online references to your library in Internet Explorer for Windows.

U.S. Patent 8,082,241

See Installation Instructions and System Requirements.

Firefox Extension

Use the EndNote toolbar in Firefox to save online references directly into your library.

Download Instructions and System Requirements.
Exporting References from PubMed using Capture Reference Bookmarklet

Select references for export and click on the Capture Reference bookmarklet in your bookmarks toolbar.
