What are the major issues affecting social justice within this theme?

What most impressed or surprised you in the displays for this theme?

Was there a display that caused you to look at an issue through a different lens?

Have you found potential collaborators as a result of what you have seen or learned today?

What actions might we take at the University, or within our own schools, colleges or offices, to move forward on social justice?